

CHAPTER 01

001

Studies show that people ①consume a wide variety of ②healthy ③foods live longer and reduce the risk that they ④develop lifestyle illnesses.

002

These riding gloves may help you ①to grip the handlebars and ②to have you ③look like a professional, which is even better than the alleged intention of the ④equipment.

003

①Inspired by the "slow food" movement, growing numbers of people ②want their vacation to be something more than a vague memory of uncomfortable plane ③rides and ④rushes sightseeing tours.

004

Although I understand ①how those drinks help ②worsen the problems of obesity and diabetes ③faced by our youth, we must not forget that physical education and sports programs, which also prevent obesity and diabetes, ④being trimmed from school budgets every year.

005

If parents ①keep their children at home, they can develop socialization skills by ②encouraging the kids to do volunteer work at an NGO ③where they can meet other young people ④engage in community service.

006

①Some scholars argue ②that Shakespeare's collection of sonnets ③were actually written for ④his patron.

007

In the house ①was a vase and teapot and platter ②that had ③once belonged to Danielle's grandfather ④which he bought from their original owners when he decided to emigrate.

008

There ①is so much contradictory evidence that the police ②are viewing all of the alibis verifying that each of the suspects ③have a reliable witness or credible story to account for ④his whereabouts on the night of the crime.

009

Politicians habitually ①promise to implement many profound changes if they ②are elected; unfortunately (or fortunately, depending on ③one's perspective) only some of these promises ④is ever actually kept.

010

Scientists exploring Australia's Great Barrier Reef ①has discovered a type of coral ②with the same characteristics as human bone; its qualities ③render it ④ideal for hip replacements and other orthopedic endeavors.

011

If you believe education is fundamental to all people and ①that what we do as individuals in our society ②depends on the education we receive, then ③ensure that education covers ④the main issues of importance is crucial.

012

He felt he had not been helpful to them until several weeks later he received a card from the couple, ①thanking him for the comfort that he had given them. They thanked him not for ②letting them saying nothing ③but for just being there and ④sharing their grief.

013

Every mother has examples she ①used to remind her children ②of times when they choose to do what is right, even though ③tempted to do ④otherwise. ⑤ No Error

014

①Almost everybody in southern Indiana roots for the Indiana University basketball team. What's neat about that ②is that people from all walks of life immediately ③have something ④in common. ⑤ No Error

015

So when the U.S. astronauts and Russian cosmonauts had their first ①linkup in space, one of the first things the Russians requested ②of the orbiting U.S. astronauts ③was their ④pressurized pen. ⑤ No Error

016

_____ he realized the fact that John was there was neither here nor there.

- ① Although
- ② Nobody knew
- ③ Whether or not
- ④ It is believed that 017

If you regularly take snacks instead of eating properly, you _____ the opportunity to get the important nutrients that your body requires.

- ① will deny
- ② will be denied
- ③ will be denying
- ④ will be to deny

018

Choose the grammatically correct sentence.

- ① The life expectancy of the average

American man is 69 years, which mean that the average American man lives to an age of 69.

② Only by doing this we can come to understand the uniqueness of different cultures, and realize that the more we think we are different, the more we actually have in common.

③ While interest in using knives and forks are growing throughout Asia, more and more Americans are learning to use chopsticks.

④ Rare are the musical organizations that can afford to hire those musicians for every concert.

019

Choose the grammatically correct sentence.

① One reason there have been so many failures to be that there have been so many attempts.

② In one year, you'll burn 54,750 calories, which is translated to mean that you'll lose 15.6 pounds.

③ When using only one finger for an adult is disrespectful.

④ To exclude those from voting who are already socially isolated destroy our democracy, as it creates a caste system.

020

Choose the grammatically correct sentence.

① For example, in the constellation of Orion is three stars — Betelgeuse, Rigel, and Mintaka.

② In addition, eating quickly while performing other tasks prevent us from realizing how much are eating.

③ The greatest amount of children that were born at the same time and survived was six.

④ The variety of behaviors insects show toward their eggs is almost without number.

CHAPTER 02

021

The book Living with Flowers ①has fabulous pictures of how to decorate ②one's home with flowers ③as well as examples of how flowers, and ④nurturing them, can contribute to one's well being and serenity. ⑤ No Error

022

Many singers in fields such as rhythm and blues, ①soul, and even rock who ②achieves success actually began their careers by singing in a church choir, ③developing their voices and vocal techniques on some of ④the world's most beloved musics. ⑤ No Error

023

When ①evaluating the impact of a ②painting, one of the most intriguing aspects ③are how the viewer perceives it: can the viewer be included ④to consider a perspective distinct from her own? ⑤ No Error

024

①By order of the Board of Education, ②the wearing of tank tops by ③students in all of the city schools ④have been completely banned.

025

①When he confronted the ②teacher, as he did after almost every test, the student was ③adamant that neither the question nor the answer choices ④was fair.

026

The Hulk ①broke through the walls of fear I had been carrying ②inside me and ③freeing me to feel everything I had been repressing④: the pride and power over my own life.

027

Everyone watched him with curiosity ①ask him what he ②was doing, but he ③was seen just ④smiling and saying, "Just wait until dark — you'll see." ⑤ No Error

028

Mexican pop culture is ①spreading to many American countries, the study ②noting that female travelers from Honduras and Chile have ③accounted for the most ④since 2003. ⑤ No Error

029

It seemed for a moment as though all of Paris ①had stopped ②to criticize the radical style of these artists, ③making for the exodus of the artists ④out of the hostile city. ⑤ No Error

030

In fact, everything ①that people post ②being automatically licensed to E-World for its ③transferable use, distribution, or public display; Recently E-World sold all "user content" ④posted on the site to other commercial businesses.

031

The number of Euripides' plays that have survived ①are larger than ②that of Aeschylus' and Sophocles' together, partly due to the ③chance preservation of a manuscript that was likely ④part of a complete collection of his works.

032

With the outbreak of World War II, radar became one of the most significant ①technologies ②used to defeat the German forces ③, which are ironic, considering the German military administration rejected the first radar devices ④created by German scientists.

033

In the United States, most ①at risk are kids who live in houses ②built before 1978, when the use of ③lead-containing paints in households was banned, or who ④are exposed to lead through a parent's occupation. ⑤ No Error

034

Every five ①years, 130 million cellphones ②complete with batteries and chargers ③are thrown into the garbage instead of being recycled or ④disposed of in a safe manner. ⑤ No Error

035

When customers ①left my shop, I not only ②invited them to come back and enjoy my food, but also ③sent them a blessing of love and prayed for ④their prosperity and happiness. ⑤ No Error

036

Choose the grammatically correct sentence.

- ① The story of the Titanic and her first and only voyage have fascinated people ever since it happened.
- ② Learning about these patterns help us to understand the world a little better.
- ③ A number of creation myths from Southeast Asia features birds.
- ④ Deep below the ground in California and Wyoming are two huge but silent volcanoes.

037

Choose the grammatically correct sentence.

- ① Finding the job you want to take lots of time and effort.
- ② In the back seat of the car next to mine was two sweet little boys.
- ③ Sometimes reading the first and last few paragraphs of a passage helps to catch the main point of the text.
- ④ Still others think that achieving satisfaction and contentment by working at a job they really like are the prime measure of success.

038

Programs should be developed that allow those studying to be English teachers _____ English in an English speaking country.

- ① study
- ② studying
- ③ are studying
- ④ to study

039

An uphill battle is expected over an agreement on the method of a public opinion poll as the two candidates differ _____ questions the poll should employ.

- ① which
- ② from which
- ③ in which
- ④ over which

040

① Do you know how much you eat in a day? ② You might be tempted to say yes. ③ But the difference between what you think you are eating and what you actually consume to be significant. ④ That's why you should record what you eat and the number of calories it contains.

CHAPTER 03

041

She homed ①in on the hospital where she met her mother, Rosemary, who ②has taken care of her father since 1992, when he ③was diagnosed ④with Alzheimer's disease.

042

Preparing broccolis ①is extremely easy, so all you have to do is ②boil them in water just until they ③will be tender, three ④to five minutes.

043

The court said that it ①could be presumed that if she had ②been informed of her ③current condition and treatment, she ④would prefer to remove the artificial respirator and die a natural death.

044

One guest, however, came ①straight to my desk after boarding to complain ②to me that he did not have the ocean view he had requested ③of the hotel. He demanded that he ④was moved at once.

045

They said, "It ①was lucky for her ②that he was blind since he ③would have never married such a ④homely woman if he had had eyes."

046

Hence, Epictetus suggests ①to you that if you ②hear somebody ③has criticized you, you ④not bother with excuses or defenses. ⑤ No Error

047

The family of the ①75-year-old woman who fell into a coma in February ②had filed a request ③in May to the court, demanding that the hospital ④took her off life-support. ⑤ No Error

048

I moved that ①he move the clock ②from beside his bed to ③the other side of his room, right in front of the bathroom door, and he ④did so. ⑤ No Error

049

My father gave an awkward laugh①; then the train started to move, so I waved good-bye and went to look for a seat. I found a window seat ②opposite a lady. I ③have wanted to look at the landscape or read my book but the woman started talking about her daughter's disease and ④telling me things I didn't want to hear. ⑤ No Error

050

Sir Isaac Newton, the trailblazer of ①physics, is ②best known for his theory of gravitation and ③description of the three laws of motion. But Newton might not ④publish his work had it not been for Edmond Halley. ⑤ No Error

051

Her eighty-one dogs inherited 14 million
①dollars! In another case, an Ohio man
②left a ③will ordering that his money ④be spent to build ⑤a home for cats.

052

Chicago Board of Trade (CBOT) front-month wheat futures have ①nearly doubled since prices ②have bottomed ③on June 9th at $4.25 per bushel as the worst drought on record in Russia, the world's third-largest exporter, ④destroyed crops.

053

However, the story begs the question: If,
①while he was walking toward the bridge,
②that man had met you, what ③did he do?
Compassion ④makes the difference between life and death in some people's lives.

054

A: I wish you _____ this dress in black.
B: Well, I think this blue one will suit me fine.

- | | |
|-----------|-------------|
| ① had | ② have |
| ③ had had | ④ will have |

055

The president said he would step down and quit politics _____ his presidential campaign fund turn out to have been raised by illegal acts.

- | | |
|----------|-----------|
| ① if | ② had |
| ③ should | ④ even if |

056

W: I enjoyed the movie very much.
M: Me too. I wish I _____ the book from which it was made.

- ① read
- ② had read
- ③ have read
- ④ should have read

057

A: If you had not come and found me, I'd probably _____ dead now.
B: You were so lucky.

- | | |
|-------------|------------|
| ① be | ② been |
| ③ have been | ④ had been |

058 _____ he was lying, I never would have let him do that.

- | | |
|--------------|---------------|
| ① If I knew | ② If I knew |
| ③ Did I know | ④ Had I known |

059

_____ in trouble, I could ask him to help us.

- | | |
|---------------|---------------|
| ① Not were he | ② Weren't he |
| ③ Were he not | ④ He were not |

060

① A: The Shepherds are considering moving to New York.
② B: Oh, really? I wish they might.
③ A: Why is that?
④ B: Actually I have to find another place to live in in New York next semester.

CHAPTER 04

061

He judged ①by the sound that the fall was a mere slip and ②could not have hurt Meredith. Therefore, he did not turn and he strode ③on as if he ④had heard nothing.
⑤ No Error

062

To change this, it ①is essential that everyone in a more ②privileged position ③has understood every ④detail of the day-to-day reality of the poor people.
⑤ No Error

063

A few years ago I ①was hospitalized ②with breast cancer. One night, feeling terrible and looking worse, I pressed the call button and a ③lovely nurse came to my rescue. "I wish you ④knew me in my real life." ⑤ No Error

064

Some sports fans still ①remember ②watching a showing of the ③movie Heidi, which ④interrupt one of the most exciting football games of all time.

065

Despite ①much public criticism, history has ②been proven Jimmy Carter ③to have been more politically astute than ④many other U.S. presidents.

066

When I ①retire in three years, I ②have been working for this company just over 45 years. I ③will fly to Canada and have a rest then, I ④have been working so hard until now.

067

The type of jazz ①known as "swing" was ②introduced by duke Ellington when ③he wrote and ④records "It Don't Mean a Thing If It Ain't Got That Swing."

068

During ①the 1940's science and engineering had an impact on the way music ②reach its audience and ③even influenced the way ④in which it was composed.

069

Even those who ①argue against it do so on the grounds ②that if it ③has not been built, some better system would have ④been devised.

070

①If England had won ②the Revolutionary War, the ③whole history of the English-speaking world ④had been different.

071

It _____ be awkward if she did not have money enough to pay the bill.

- ① would ② used to
- ③ need ④ ought to 072 _____ him at the right moment, my friend might have failed in that business.

- ① If you had not advise
- ② If you were not advised
- ③ If you has not advised
- ④ If you had not advised

073

If Mary _____ a seat belt, she would have been injured in the accident.

- ① didn't wear
- ② hadn't been wearing
- ③ wasn't wearing
- ④ wouldn't have wore

074

A: Jane really _____ after her mother.
B: Yeah, she's so cute.

- ① take ② took
- ③ takes ④ has taken

075

A: Tom! You don't have to yell at me!
B: _____. I'm just trying to explain it to you.

- ① I won't ② I'm not
- ③ I had to ④ I have to 076

A: Would you like some more?
B: No, thanks. _____.

- ① I had enough
- ② I have enough
- ③ I'd had enough
- ④ I've had enough

077

A: Why did you turn to channel 11?
B: _____ TV all day.

- ① You are watching
- ② You've been watching
- ③ You were watching
- ④ You had watched

078

Melissa arrived from France on Wednesday and _____ from jet lag.

- ① suffering ② suffers
- ③ is suffering ④ had suffered

079

No one can say with certainty whether South Korea will discuss the issue with North Korea, but we _____ rule out its possibility at all at the moment.

- ① cannot ② had not
- ③ does not ④ could not

080

① A: Do you think it's going to rain?
② B: Not for a couple of hours. Maybe later. Why?
③ A: I was supposed to go on a picnic with Mandy this afternoon. What do you think?
④ B: I think you should cancel it and go to a movie.

CHAPTER 05

081

I am wondering ①that there are any recommendations you might ②have to treat the surfaces to ③make the smoke smell gone before the painting and re-finishing ④occurs. ⑤ No Error

082

Successful people focus ①on what ②they think they want to achieve and have an unwavering belief ③that they will make it ④happen. ⑤ No Error

083

Fulghum says he keeps ①that picture there to remind himself ②that, more than a president of any nation, more than any pope, more than any chief executive officer of a major corporation, ③and that woman has authority ④for she is a servant. ⑤ No Error

084

①How irrelevant to your ②imagination contemporary art exhibitions might sometimes ③seem, they are worth ④visiting. ⑤ No Error

085

Commercial fishing has ①declined dramatically ②because the pollution runoff from plants and homes ③along the coastline ④has destroyed spawning habitats. ⑤ No Error

086

Huge and sophisticated radar-guided net-fishing fleets and the ①floating fish processing factories ②used by Japan, Russia, and other nations have ③resulted from overfishing to the point ④where the present catches of many kinds of table fish ⑤exceed the regenerative capacity of the species.

087

The dummy's job is ①simulate a human being ②while a crash, collecting data that would not be ③possible to collect from a human occupant ④amid a head-on collision test.

088

①When the light turned green, and she had still not been successful at starting her car, the guy in the car directly behind her ②started to become very impatient, ③what he showed by honking his horn continuously ④as Sandra worked feverishly to get the car ⑤started again.

089

You may notice the green lights ①underneath the bottom steps of escalators. In fact, those emerald lights ②are there to outline the edge of the step, ③so you know ④that you should step off or step on from those lights.

090

This was the case in 1753, ①when Parliament decided that all marriages had to be performed by a clergyman, and ②what no one under the age of twenty-one could ③marry when the parents or guardians did not agree ④to the marriage.

091

Hope, ①that seems like the thinnest little thread, is an incredibly powerful force leading us from the most horrible problems into a bright new day. ②Hang on to hope. Never give up hope, ③however frightening the obstacles ④lying in your path are.

092

But it can also happen that one's memories grow much ①sharper even after a long passage of time. This is ②why one is looking at the past with fresh eyes and can isolate and, ③as it were, notice facts ④which previously existed undifferentiated among a mass of others.

093

Modern humans owe a lot to ①that long period of hunter-gatherers, not least of ②it was probably the ability to ③inhabit most areas of the earth. From the rain forests to the Arctic, the first humans to inhabit the globe ④were hunter-gatherers, and no one else has successfully colonized any place ⑤where they did not live.

094

So, you can imagine how surprised scientists were, when in 1938, a fisherman in South Africa caught ①a live coelacanth — the very fish that they thought ②it was extinct even before the dinosaur died out! Since 1938, ③a number of coelacanths have been caught, ④proving that the fish has survived in great numbers.

095

Ever ①since the 1930s, archaeologists have believed that the Tigris and Euphrates valley in ancient Mesopotamia, which is now Iraq, ②was "the cradle of civilization" ③which, around 8000 B.C., people first ④settled in villages to cultivate wild grain and domesticate animals.

096

①Having been assumed that all Jews ②had gold and money, the gang went to the house and ③demanded that the women ④turn over ⑤what they had, but they had nothing.

097

One day he was in a very good humor, ①for he had made a mirror with the power of causing all that was good and beautiful when it was reflected in the mirror ②to look poor and mean, and ③that which was good-for-nothing and looked ugly ④was shown ⑤magnifying in ugliness.

098

Choose the one that is grammatically correct.

- ① A gate blocks the exciting bulls from a group of nervous runners.
- ② Still, having witnessed his incredible triumphs, I couldn't help but wonder what his next challenge would be.
- ③ This period of time, when teams have different numbers of players, is called a power play, and provides an excellent scored opportunity for the larger team.
- ④ Unfortunately, cramming does not produce the desiring results.

099

The melting of the Himalaya glaciers ①is predicted to increase flooding, ②followed by water shortages ③affected over two ④billion people in Asia.

100

As your account is now 90 days past due, your service will be discontinued _____ $599 is paid by July 15.

- ① although
- ② unless
- ③ lest
- ④ otherwise

CHAPTER 07

121

Sam Martin will be allowed back in school tomorrow, his suspension for kissing a second grade classmate _____ school officials.

- ① lifted ② lifted by ③ is lifted by ④ will be lifted by 122

A: Sunhee didn't sound that bad on the piano.
B: No, not at all, _____ she hasn't played the piano.

- ① consider ② considered
③ considering ④ to consider

123

Usually, I am sensible with money, as I have to be, _____ that I don't earn that much.

- ① according ② compared
③ given ④ regarding

124

A: My wallet _____!
B: Where did you last see it?

- ① is gone ② was gone
③ has been gone ④ had gone

125

A: Mom, can I go out and play?
B: When you are _____ with your homework, you can play outside.

- ① to do ② done
③ doing ④ be done

126

_____ his will to shoulder the blame, the former opposition leader requested leniency for party officials implicated in shady dealings.

- ① Stressing ② To stress
③ Stressed ④ Stress

127

Sometimes we are likely to see bullying only in cliched, simplistic terms, _____ the subtleties of the issue.

- ① ignore ② ignored
③ ignoring ④ to ignore

128

① One of the worst natural disasters in recorded history began on April 5, 1815, when Mount Tambora in present day Indonesia erupted. ② The volcano blew off the top 4,000 feet of the mountain, created a 10 km-wide crater. ③ 12,000 people were killed immediately, and 80,000 died from starvation as ash from the volcano destroyed farmland. ④ The blast was heard over 2,000 km away.

129

In trade and ①handicrafts, and such other vocations ②as farming and fishery, ③what have occupied great numbers of men from remote times, the technical cant is very old, ④consisting largely of native words.

130

The ①children lived with their mothers had ②plenty of opportunity for close social interaction, but those in the institution received only routine care ③at mealtimes ④and when their clothing or bedding was changed.

131

What's ①most striking here is not the result, but the fact that ②even these women agreed to participate in a study with a goal of 20% fat intake, and ③were supplied with significant assistance, they were only able to ④bring it down to 29%.

132

My patients' experiences, ①and I admit my own, support how difficult it is to ②control total fat intake. That's ③because I encourage my patients to monitor what kinds of fats they eat, not just how much fat. I recommend a diet ④low in saturated fat, trans fat and cholesterol.

133

The violinists and pianists ①their names you've heard regularly ②earn between $30,000 and $50,000 for a single performance. Rare ③are the musical organizations that can afford ④to hire those musicians for every ⑤concert.

134

①Energize your life by starting each day with gratitude. When you wake up, before you do ②anything else, stop and count your blessings. Then find something special about each day ③that you can be thankful. It's a great way to get each day ④started on a positive note, and ⑤it can make a major difference throughout the day.

135

How salmon return to the correct shoreline region for spawning ①is not completely understood. It appears they use some form of "map and compass" navigation, ②it is based on information about position and direction of travel. This information ③most likely comes from some environmental cues, ④including day length, the sun's position and the polarization of light that ⑤results from its angle in the sky, and the earth's magnetic field.

136

In Japan, the introduction of tea-drinking, about six hundred years ago, altered ①almost every aspect of life. It had a very deep influence on aesthetics, in particular pottery, but also architecture, painting and poetry. It influenced politics ②as the tea ceremony became a place ③which warring factions could meet. It fundamentally altered religion, ④for tea and Buddhism were ⑤inextricably mixed together.

137

According to critics, this highly ①developed form of agriculture has ②resulted in the cruel treatment of chickens, breaking ③such important parts of their life cycle, as their rate of ④laying eggs. ⑤ No Error

138

Beauty is certainly ①more than skin-deep. ②However you might define it, beauty extends ③far beyond the visual to ④what pleases other senses and even the mind. ⑤ No Error

139

Choose the one that is grammatically correct.

- ① It is so easy to include hidden assumptions that you do not see but what are obvious to others.
- ② How do we know that what we dream is unreal and that we experience in our waking lives is real?
- ③ By showing respect for their privacy, we give them a sense of self and show them how privacy is important to others.
- ④ Around the world, about 529,000 women a year die while either pregnancy or childbirth.
- ⑤ Despite zoological research there are still many dark areas about the life of this strange creature that loves sand and shallow water.

140

Choose the one that is grammatically wrong.

- ① Whether you wear torn jeans or like to recite poetry, by doing so you make a statement of belonging to a group of people.
- ② E-commerce is to the information revolution what the railroad was to the industrial revolution.
- ③ But the law already permits patients to withdraw unwanted medical treatment even if that increases the likelihood which the patient will die.
- ④ He looked and knew that it was a watermelon.
- ⑤ It is because of their communicative properties that intense debates continue over the true role of the arts in today's world.

CHAPTER 08

141

When I think about the things I love ①most about our relationship, ②few of the thoughts ③raise more quickly to the surface than ④that we are still playful after so many years of marriage.

142

An important aspect of farm ①machinery that is not often ②recognized is that it ③has been made modern social and economic organization possible by freeing ④large numbers of people from food production for ⑤other work, such as manufacturing.

143

A man took a pair of ①trousers into his local dry cleaners to ②get them altered. But the cleaners lost them. And now that man, who ③happens to be a judge, is suing. He, Mr. Owen, claims he ④owed sixty-seven million dollars.

144

①Pressured by the advertising and entertainment industries, women are using all kinds of ②methods to meet this standard and to make themselves ③appeared more beautiful, at least on the outside, which ④could never have been thought more seriously even in the nineteenth century.

145

Researchers found that the women ①assigned to follow a low-fat diet did not have any additional protection ②against cancer or heart disease, and they ③weighed about the same as those ④following their usual diet.

146

Choose the grammatically correct one.

- ① When there is no food or water, the fat can be used to powering the camel's body, and the hump gradually gets smaller.
- ② The lowest temperature was recorded outside a science laboratory was at the Russian research station at Vostok in Antarctica on 21 July 1983.
- ③ Competition between human beings and wildlife is occurred across the Pacific.
- ④ Another time they entered a contest to guess how many soda cans the back of a pickup truck held.

147

A psychology class that ①had been learning about the effects of positive reinforcement on test subjects — people who ②are told they are doing well and ③so consequently do well — ④decides to try an experiment on their teacher.

148

Westerners, especially Americans, ①tend to think of a friend as someone ②whose company they enjoy. A friend can ③ask for help if necessary, but it ④is considered poor form to cultivate a friendship primarily for what can ⑤be gained from that person.

149

Facebook initially limited access ①to specific college campuses, which won its first wave of die-hard users. Individual Facebook users are still ②allowing a maximum of 5,000 friends, even though Twitter has shown the value of ③letting Ashton Kutcher have ④7.5 million followers.

150

On ①the other is an equally complicated ②but elegant design of a system that would work just ③as well, but that he ④bases on ⑤complete opposite premises from the first.

151

A: I need to make a few copies now.
B: I'd be glad _____ those for you.

- ① copying ② to copy
③ copying of ④ to copy of 152

Job applicants can spend weeks riffling through industry directories and company profiles _____ themselves back where they started.

- ① and just finding
② and just to find
③ just to find
④ just finding

153

A: John. Bath time! Don't forget _____ with soap.
B: I won't.

- ① washing ② washed
③ to wash ④ to be washed

154

But, he wondered ①how the earth could spin and not ②shake off balance when all the land seemed to ③have been in the Northern Hemisphere. He theorized that a giant continent must ④exist in the Southern Hemisphere to balance the land of the north.

155

Nothing is really over until the moment _____.

- ① your stopping to try.
② you stop trying
③ for you stopping trying
④ you stop to try

156

The school reopened a year ago _____ three years ago.

- ① after closed
② after be closed
③ after to be closed
④ after being closed

157

① One child dies of malaria in Africa every 29 seconds. ② One person is infected with HIV every 6.4 seconds. ③ 8 million die every year because they are too poor staying alive. ④ We should figure out how to eradicate those calamities.

158

Internet web sites are trying hard to increase their income by _____.

- ① advertising space selling
② advertising selling space
③ selling advertised space
④ selling advertising space

159

Clones would be more different than identical twins, _____ up with different generational experience.

- ① grow ② to grow
③ grown ④ growing

160

① It is important to know the relationship of background information to reading concerned when you read. ② Reading is largely concerned with connecting the ideas on the page to what you already know. ③ If you do not know anything about a subject, then poured words of text into your mind is like pouring water into your hand. ④ You do not retain much.

CHAPTER 09

161

You read ①halfway through a sentence and then decided that it ②may have been an important sentence. So you went back to the beginning of ③the sentence to underline what you had just read. This procedure interrupts your concentration on the passage as you stop ④doing something else, and slows you and your comprehension down.

162

①Due to the limitations of the damaged marble, the statue is ②much broader than it is deep, and so David ③was intended to ④view from the front or back, ⑤rather than the side.

163

But, ①however intelligent they may be, it's a mistake to credit dolphins ②with any motive of life-saving. On the occasions ③when they have pushed an unconscious man to shore they have ④much more likely ⑤to do it out of curiosity.

164

①Strangely enough, the Teddy Bear Effect refers to the phenomenon ②where a passive listener ③appears to give wisdom ④to a speaker without doing anything other than ⑤listen.

165

Mom couldn't help ①laughing as they ②neared their destination and she overheard the mother ③say to the boy, "Now remember ④to run to Dad first, then the dog."

166

But I reminded ①myself that I was fortunate ②to have any sort of job, and ③that I would certainly get used to ④being taught these girls, who, although they were very poor, might be as ⑤good and as intelligent as children from the greatest families in England.

167

The doctor put him ①under sedation for rest ②because of his great loss of blood. When he ③woke up, however, he insisted on ④allowing to go immediately ⑤as he had a TV appointment that evening.

168

A: Do you think Hans will stay longer at his uncle's?

B: No, not at all. He _____ come here tomorrow.

- | | |
|---------|----------|
| ① can | ② might |
| ③ would | ④ should |

169

A: How was your trip to Japan? Where did you go?

B: More interesting than I thought it _____.

- | | |
|------------|------------|
| ① was | ② would |
| ③ would be | ④ had been |

170

Only he and the person ①to whom he would deliver the message would know the intentions of the chief. ②To be swift, trustworthy and courageous were the attributes ③required of a messenger ④because he could be in great danger of being captured and ⑤torturing to reveal the message.

171

It ①turned out that this money was the life savings of an old woman, and ②through his one act he probably ③saved her financial life, ④yet he refused ⑤receiving praise.

172

Some scientists believe that it is a natural rock formation, and ①that it ②may have been changed by the people of an ancient civilization. Other scientists say that it ③should have been made by ④man.

173

We tend to believe that our taste in music is a great way of ①expressive our individuality, but sociologists ②at Columbia University claim that we ③only like the music we listen ④to because we know others enjoy it.

174 _____ about the problem, but little has been done.

- ① Many say ② Much has been said
③ Much say ④ Many have been said

175

The rebel leader believed to have masterminded the terrorist act _____ by the FBI for two years.

- ① being pursued
② to be pursued
③ is being pursued
④ had been pursued

176

Research ①at Lancaster University's Department of Psychology has shown that listeners to news reports ②present in an accent ③with which they are not familiar ④retain a lot ⑤less information than when the report is presented in good "received pronunciation (RP)".

177

Some scientists believe that it is a natural rock formation, and ①that it ②should have been changed by the people of an ancient civilization. Other scientists say that it ③must have been made by ④man.

178

Choose the correct one.

- ① Expanding energy needs have come about difficult environmental problems in the form of air and water pollution.
② The change was resulted in the interruption of the ecosystem such as the early flower blossoms and changes in fish species.

③ The story of how Isabella moved to the small town of Forks, Washington where she met Edward has told from Isabella's perspective.

④ Although it appeared as an eating tool in Greece as early as the fourth century, it did not start to be generally used until the Modern Ages.

179

Choose the correct one.

① Just like practicing push-ups, the more you practice math, the more you will improve, and the smarter you will be felt.

② While shopping in a department store, I accidentally left my purse laying on a counter of handbags.

③ Watching chimps laying vacant eyed with tubes dangling from their arms, we seem to enjoy torturing the creatures.

④ And as the youngest of five children who all attended the same school, I got used to being recognized as John's sister or Joe's sister.

180

Choose the correct one.

① A female professional speech writer credits with creating these phrases, capturing abstract ideas and putting them into practical language.

② As one of relatively few female airline pilots, I've often mistaken for a flight attendant, ticket agent or even a snack-bar employee.

③ This question most commonly arises when students realize that they must read tremendous amounts of material in a short period of time.

④ The water of this legendary fountain, which no one has yet found, believed to give back youth and good health to those who drank it.

CHAPTER 10

181

A: I'm going to be taking a few days off next week.

B: I wish I _____ say so.

- ① could ② would
③ might ④ should

182

A: I can't believe how Dad could say such a thing to me!

B: He _____.

- ① would ② might ③ will ④ shall

183

Twenty-five ①years later these children, who were between the ②ages of 2 and 6 at the time of the divorce, ③were expressed to her their ④sentiments about the divorce.

184

- ① A: Mom, can I go outside and play?
② B: Did you finish your homework? I thought you had too much of it.
③ A: Not yet, but tomorrow is a holiday.
④ B: You'd better in a hurry. Grandma is supposed to come tomorrow.

185

- ① You have a fine organization and there are many aspects of the position, which are very appealed to me.
② The recording of the great history of Western civilization was making possible by the early development of alphabetic writing.
③ Because we often come across words that we don't understand, most of us are not used to read English books and magazines.
④ By the time she was three, Matilda had taught herself to read by studying newspapers and magazines that lay around the house.

186

- ① Over the years, I am frequently counseled people who wanted better jobs to show more initiative.
② But most of the time, my only companions were dolphins and flying fish. Sometimes a bird would stop by to hitchhike or for a little rest.
③ In 1996, the amount of venture capital fell 53% from the previous year, to $ 202 million. This year the numbers expect to show a steeper decline.
④ The most important thing you can do for your child is to make a schedule for the things your child need to do each day.

187

Stop ①to worry so much about who or ②what you appear to be. Instead, put your energy into expressing ③that you're ④a unique and important person.

188

The runners do their best ①to stay at least ②a few paces ahead of these ③scared animals, ④some more successfully than others.

189

①In the early days of making movies, Westerns were ②extreme popular, and stars ③such as Tom Mix and William S. Hart made cowboy life ④seem dangerous.

190

- ① You may find very relaxing to have a phone conversation with a particular person before going to bed.
② You don't have to feel the laughter in order of it to be beneficial.
③ Harry is the only person in the history of the magical world to have ever survived a direct hit of the killing curse.
④ Math Makes Sense! is designed to truly leaving no child behind.

191

Beth is a TV addict and watches as much as she _____.

- ① will ② can
③ does ④ would

192

US families have begun planning to leave Kuwait as tensions rise with its _____ Iraq.

- ① neighbor ② neighbored
③ neighboring ④ neighborhood

193

A: You look much more _____ than yesterday.

B: Yes, I finally got my work done.

- ① relaxed ② relaxing
③ relax ④ relaxation

194

A: Did you see the game last night?

B: Sure did. The winner was _____.

- ① amazing ② amazen
③ amazed ④ amaze

195

The dogs on that show are really loud. It's funny — when the electricity ①went out, I thought I ②had turned the TV off. But I ③should have turned the volume all the way up ④instead.

196

Edison worked primarily ①on useful inventions, saying that he wanted to make ②as much money as possible. However, he did not make ③a fortune, because he insisted that his inventions ④should have remained exactly as he created.

197

Global warming _____ an effect yet, but may in the future.

- ① may not have had ② could not have had
③ would not have had
④ should not have had

198

A: How can you write articles so well?

B: Well, I _____ among people who read and wrote a lot.

- ① brought ② brought up
③ was brought ④ was brought up

199

① Nature is in a state of constant renewal.
② As branches of trees die, storms knock them off the trees. ③ On the ground they decay, creating fertile soil for future trees to grow in. ④ Anyone who studies nature is bound to be fascinating to the many ways in which nature renews itself.

200

A: Are you waiting for something?

B: Jack _____ to give me an important call at ten this morning. That was 10 minutes ago.

- ① is supposed ② was supposed
③ has supposed ④ had supposed

CHAPTER 11

201

The force of gravity is stronger ①at the North or South Pole ②that at the equator. ③For the poles are ④nearer the Earth's center.

202

Not until ①a monkey is several ②years old ③it begins to exhibit signs of independence ④from ⑤its mother.

203

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① A sneeze can't be performed voluntarily, neither it can be easily suppressed.
- ② Even though she had the impressive title of executive assistant, her salary was lower than a secretary's.
- ③ Had he elected, the country would have been the best in the States.
- ④ After he finishes his military service would he be able to get married.

204

Although sleep research has improved our understanding of sleep and ailments about it, researchers still do not know just ①why sleep is necessary. Sleep ②doesn't seem to be essential for health since some people can get along with very little sleep. ③Nor is sleep merely give us back energy that was depleted ④during the day. Some of the most significant new studies link sleep to our "body clock," ⑤where certain patterns occur in sequence.

205 _____ when it started raining.

- ① No sooner had the game begun
- ② No sooner the game had begun
- ③ Scarcely the game had begun
- ④ Hardly had the game begun
- ⑤ As soon as the game had begun

206

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① The building across the square is one of finest example of colonial architecture I have ever seen.
- ② One of the significant distinction between the old European world and the mighty other world near the Russian frontier is the consciousness of tradition.
- ③ Ms. Minor drinks her tea with lemon and a little sugar.
- ④ The reason that I do not want to buy a new car is that I don't have a money necessary for such an extravagant expense.

207

Never in our history _____ in its abilities than today.

- ① the leadership in our economic life was more distinguished
- ② was the leadership in our economic life more distinguished
- ③ was more distinguished the leadership in our economic life
- ④ more distinguished was the leadership in our economic life

208

Never before _____ in an earnest attempt to resolve their differences.

- ① the leaders of the countries have met
- ② have the leaders of the countries met
- ③ met the leaders of the countries
- ④ have the leaders the countries meet

209

Younger students ①who participated in the survey ②sponsored by a weekly magazine ③turned out to be less concerned about the serious problems of homeless people ④as were the older students.

210

There are as many explanations as to what causes hiccups as there are _____.

- ① which they tell how to be rid of
- ② which they tell how to be rid of them
- ③ which tell how to be rid of
- ④ which tell how to be rid of them

211

Scientists stress that the overall warming trend of the last decade holds much more significance _____ single year's temperatures.

- ① any do ② than do any
③ than any do ④ do then

212

① Obviously we were ② much more impressed ③ with performance than ④ did the other members of the audience.

213

When Michael Levine of University of Pennsylvania compared college students raised with dogs with those ① raised ② without, he found that women who had owned dogs as children scored higher on tests of self-reliance, social skills, sociability and tolerance ③ than ④ was petless women.

214

Now, however, ① the energy risks so apparent in the aftermath of hurricane Katrina have created both the urgency and the political opportunity ② for the nation's leaders to respond appropriately. The government must ③ capitalize on the end of the era of perpetually cheap gas, and it must do so ④ in a way such that makes America less vulnerable to all manner of threats.

215

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① Hey, you two! You must each listen carefully to what another says.
② You may not realize that the weather in Mexico City during Christmas is like New York in November.
③ Bats are able to guide them by emitting sound waves too high for humans to hear.
④ Nobody speaks out more clearly than he does, but his writing is frequently difficult to make sense of.

216

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① JFK Airport in New York handles more freight and mail than any another airport in the world.
② Rabbits and hares look much like and are often mistaken for each other.
③ Crab eats coconut, fish eat alive coral, and rats live in the tops of all trees.

④ The police managed to arrest the thief nearby the house which he burgled less than two hours before.

⑤ Tom, who lives near the headquarters of the company, has been the manager for sales promotion for seven years.

217

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① Were the computer parts to be delivered earlier, we could be able to complete the project on time.
② Though the fact that he is generally sincere and honest, the head is not likely to forgive his fault this time.
③ The maintenance team has completely upgraded our system's software, but if it protects us from these new computer viruses is another matter.
④ His forecasts of the economy are much more positive than that of many analysts, who fear the country is going into a recession.

218

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① The professor introduced himself, told several interesting examples, and finishing with the focused subjects.
② There are papers to submit, reports to type, and mail should be answered immediately.
③ Shakespeare was both a poet and he acted.
④ A good leader knows not only the way; he also shows the way.

219

Soon there will be ① something new for the tourist who has been everywhere and ② see everything on Earth. Spacecraft ③ being developed by private commercial companies will soon enable private citizens ④ to buy their own tickets to travel into space.

220

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① If men and women begin to feel that they are little worth, then mental and emotional problems can occur.
② He is taller than another boy in his class.
③ Nothing is so precious than time.
④ Many a great artists are exceptionally sensitive people.

CHAPTER 12

221

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① Simple photographic lenses cannot help form sharpening, undistorted images over a wide field.
- ② Lakes may dry up because a change in climate or a change in the course of the waters that feed them.
- ③ Throughout history, shoes have been worn not only for protection and also for decoration.
- ④ Taconite, a flintlike rock found main in northern Minnesota, contains approximately five percent iron.

222

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar and usage.

- ① They contrived new innovations to develop their country.
- ② There is not way by which the people of the world can be divided into neat and precise racial categories.
- ③ Lunar eclipses happen only if the Moon is full, but they do not occur at an every full Moon.
- ④ Holyoke, Massachusetts, is called the "paper city" because the paper mills are located there.

223

Carefully produced, _____, a newsletter can vary the usual pace of information delivery and promote dialogue, involvement, and loyalty.

- ① while the needs and interests of those contacting in mind
- ② and the needs and interests of those contact in mind
- ③ the needs and interests of those contact in mind
- ④ with the needs and interests of those being contacted in mind

224

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① If a man you met the night before and made the worst impression on you loses no time in telephoning you the very next morning, be as busy as possible.
- ② When I take into consideration all the factors involved, I have neither the inclination nor the insensitivity to interfere.
- ③ There are usually more men in your life whom you would like to get rid of as those whom you are dying to meet.

- ④ If you don't mind impolite, you can even say that you have to write a letter or take dog for a walk.

225

Choose the incorrect one in terms of grammar.

- ① It is necessary for him to do the work.
- ② It is sure for him to pass the exam.
- ③ It is important that he win the game.
- ④ It is essential that he obey the rule.

226

①For customer's convenience the retail shop ②always provides a ③postage—attached envelope to ④return back the reply for the inquiry

227

John took ①carefully notes ②of all presentations throughout the conference, ③to be able to ④refer to them later.

228 _____ in this city will you find any stores open on Sundays.

- ① Hardly any place ② In hardly places
- ③ No place any ④ Any place

229

A: Will you go home this weekend?
B: No, and _____.

- ① neither Michael will
- ② so won't Michael
- ③ Michael won't, too
- ④ neither will Michael

230

A: David?
B: Miguel! In New York? Incredible! What are you doing here?
A: I live here. I've been working for a trade company for four years. Hey, you haven't changed a bit.
B: _____

- ① Neither have you!
- ② What an accident!
- ③ I'd love to do that!
- ④ How lucky you are!

231

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① Visitors must be accompanied by a employee when they are in the building.
- ② Paul's aunt said that if she were late he was to wait for her at the airport for at least half a hour.

- ③ I worked with the poor for several years, yet I didn't feel I really understood his problems.
④ He was elected president of the student body.

232

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① To see more clearly what is at stake in knowing about research on such matters, let us look closely at what some conservative Christian child-rearing manuals have to say about how child should be raised.
② According to an eyewitness, a train hit a concrete block which somebody had put on the line.
③ For half century, Samuel Dulles played a prominent role in local, regional, and national political events.
④ Birds will come back again and again to given spot for food and water.

233

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① Mary Lyon founded Mount Holyoke College, the first permanent institution of higher learning for woman in the United States.
② At seven o'clock in the morning, guards rouse prisoners from their stifling communal cells and lead them and their fellow inmate into the dusty exercise yard of a Lao prison.
③ Pioneer woman in the West had more opportunities to work than they had in the East.
④ Encyclopedias may be used to answer questions, to solve problems, or to obtain information on a particular topic.

234

Richard Wagner had the emotional stability of two _____.

- ① ten-year-olds
② ten-years-old boys
③ ten-years-olds
④ ten-years-old boy

235

Choose the incorrect one in terms of grammar.

I looked into ①the half-forgotten box I had pulled from a dusty shelf. In it ②laid various sizes of baby clothes I'd saved throughout the first years of my five-year-old son's little life. I was going to make a quilt for him, ③cutting patches of the cloth into quilt-size squares ④and sewing them together until they eventually became a collection of memories.

236

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① More and more attention is given to natural foods so as to improve the health of human beings.
② Rockefeller earned great wealth from his oil wells.
③ Ask several peoples who were raised in the American culture and some others who were raised in the Japanese culture how they feel about snakes.
④ Several passer-bys stopped to look at the strange car out of curiosity.
⑤ Methane in wetlands comes from soil bacteria that consumes organic plant matter.

237

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① Exercising is as a good way as any to lose unwanted weight.
② Beecher, a nineteen-centuries educator, was for liberal education for woman, although she opposed woman suffrage.
③ She is very difficult for you to play with.
④ The more preparation you do now, the more you will be confident before the exam.

238

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① My father does not care how much does the car cost because he will buy it anyway.
② Some of the greatest of the Indian chiefs saw that the only chance for the Indians was uniting the tribes against his common enemy.
③ Why should I be angry with a man for loving himself better than myself?
④ As a nation, the United States has doubled its living standard in the last 50 years.

239

Although Julis Adams was ①almost totally deaf in one ear and had ②weak hearing in ③another, she ④overcame the handicap and became an internationally renowned pianist.

240

Choose the incorrect one in terms of grammar.

- ① She runs on average miles a day, whatever the circumstances, whatever the weather.
② Everybody who goes into this region, whomever they are, is at risk of being taken hostage.
③ He moved carefully over what remained of partition walls.
④ Whichever fitness classes you opt for, trained instructors are there to help you.

CHAPTER 13

241

① An information is the result of gathering, processing and organizing data in a way that adds to the knowledge of the receiver. ② In other words, it is the context in which data is taken. ③ It bears a diversity of meanings, from everyday usage to technical settings. ④ Generally speaking, the concept of information is closely related to notions of communication, control, instruction, knowledge, mental stimulus, pattern, and perception.

242

Andy left after waiting for Morgan over an hour, and _____.

- ① shortly thereafter Morgan arrived
- ② thereafter shortly Morgan arrived
- ③ shortly Morgan arrived thereafter
- ④ thereafter Morgan arrived shortly

243

Some researchers believe the atmosphere of Mars ①was once as ②thick as ③Earth's. Today, however, all those lakes and rivers are ④dry, and the atmospheric pressure on Mars is only 1% ⑤those on Earth at sea-level.

244

Choose the correct one in terms of grammar.

- ① However, during her driving lessons, she made many mistakes and spent many time passing each step of the program.
- ② However, with a little preparation your traveling time can possibly become as smoothly as a baby's bottom.
- ③ In the 3D world of Avatar, there are a lot of things in the foreground at once, which is why it feels realistically.
- ④ Genetically modified food is developed from specially modified seeds and fertilized eggs.

245

A new hearing aid called SoundBite uses teeth, not ears, to ①help improve hearing. Microphones in ②the ear canals pick up sound, then digitize and send ③them ④wirelessly to a device ⑤attached to the teeth.

246

① In the early days of electricity there were few people who understood it completely. ② There were, however, a number of people who were fascinated by the power of electricity and how it could be manipulated to thrill an audience. ③ As a public spectacle, some people went so far as to run electric charges through their bodies and gave off what appeared to be lightning flashes. ④ Ignorance of the dangers of electricity always has taken its toll, although today people are usually able to avoid its negative effects.

247

The only rationale ①behind the present system is that it makes administration and school ②bureaucracy easily, ③yet it can never be called ④efficient.

248

Her assistant was accused _____ theft and fraud.

- ① of ② against
③ with ④ for

249

While ①manned space missions are more ②costly than unmanned ③ones, they are more successful. Robots and astronauts use ④many of the same equipment in space.

250

①Enough strangely, the Teddy Bear Effect refers to the phenomenon ②where a passive listener ③appears to give wisdom ④to a speaker without doing anything other than ⑤listening.

251

A: Dinner's ready, everybody!

B: What's _____ dinner, Mom?

- | | |
|-------|------|
| ① at | ② on |
| ③ for | ④ in |

252

Mourning a dead pet ①provides children with ②an useful "rehearsal" for the death of human family members, but it is not considered ③appropriate for adults because there is a lack of social support for the mature person going through ④such great grief.

253

The researchers noted that ①more studies were needed to confirm their findings, ②which were based on a ③relatively small sampling. But they called for common-sense measures to help ④reduce the risk of contamination, especially ⑤frequently cleaning of phones.

254

①Albeit the strawberries ②are a spring and summer fruit, they ③can be purchased from southern farmers ④in the winter.

255

The government also has ①embarked on a series of financial market reforms that include ②merging its equities and ③future markets and ④injecting huge funds into ⑤the private mutual fund industry.

256

Incidentally, ①it saved her parents the time typically ②spend ③hunting for sock mates that ④mysteriously ⑤disappear in the laundry.

257

As Bush and Quayle ①flew off to make ②a campaign speech in Illinois, briefers quickly explained ③to the public that the Yeltsin ④talks would center on ⑤nuclear arm control, not on economic aid for Russia.

258

The bat, one of ①the most gentle and ②friendly of living creatures, should be looked ③upon as a sort of ④night policeman, because it is an ⑤insects eater.

259

A: What do you think of the management?

B: Well, I think they're going _____ the road with a road map.

- | | |
|--------|-----------|
| ① by | ② over |
| ③ down | ④ through |

260

Only he and the person ①to whom he would deliver the message would know the intentions of the chief. To be swift, trustworthy and courageous ②were the attributes which were ③required a messenger ④because he could be in great danger of being captured and ⑤tortured to reveal the message.

CHAPTER 14

261

Also among the speakers was the new Chinese ambassador _____ the United Nations.

- ① in ② to ③ for ④ of

262

Meanwhile, ①the other half of the class pretended ②to ignore the lesson and ③look bored. Within a few minutes, the teacher began to focus all of his attention on the enthusiastic group ④while ignoring the other half of the class. Later that day, the students wrote up their observations, and ⑤rewarded with top marks.

263

_____, the more likely you are to catch a cold.

- ① The more under stress you are ② Under the more stress you are ③ The more stress you are under ④ Under stress the more you are 264

A: How are you getting along with Shawn these days?

B: Couldn't be _____.

- ① good ② more
③ better ④ best

265

Moreover, their growth appeared peculiarly ①gradual, contradicting the popular conception of intelligence ②as something inborn and fixed. Aptitudes that he ③had learned rather than inherited were ④apparent as crucial to his genius as ⑤any powers of intellect.

266

He ①sets them to work, he gives back ②to them the bare minimum that will keep ③them from starving, and he keeps the rest for ④him.

267

Scratch my back and I will scratch _____.

- ① you ② your
③ yours ④ your's

268

As the train neared the resort town on the coast ①where I was going to spend my two-week vacation, I got up from my seat, ②wandering up the aisle to stretch my legs for a few minutes. When I turned to go back to my seat, I happened to glance down the aisle, and ③sit a few rows back was a man, an incessant talker. And it used to take hours ④to get away from him ⑤once he started a conversation.

269

A: Is that Lisa on the phone?

B: Yes, _____ is.

- ① it ② she
③ Lisa ④ speaking

270

"Some countries contend incorrectly that the United States _____ not take seriously its obligations under the Convention," the Secretary said.

- ① is ② are
③ do ④ does

271

An automatic garage door opener is _____, but certainly not essential.

- ① nice convenient
- ② nice convenience
- ③ a nice convenient
- ④ a nice convenience

272

The US has asked nearly _____ nations to provide refuge for the Tibetans without success, in part because other nations do not want to anger the Chinese.

- ① two dozen ② two dozens
- ③ two dozen of ④ two dozens of 273

Some employers, ①in order to increase their profits, took ②advantage of their workers by paying ③themselves extremely low ④wages.

274 _____ seven million people around the world are at risk of starvation.

- ① Estimated
- ② An estimated
- ③ The estimated
- ④ The estimation

275

A: Is there any place to eat around here?
B: Well, there are _____ restaurants in the neighborhood.

- ① a little ② few
- ③ fews of ④ a few of 276

A: I understand you don't want to meet John.
B: I could call him to meet you, _____, if that would help.

- ① although ② whatever
- ③ nonetheless ④ though

277

We spend an excessive ①amount of time ②browsing the Web every day. As a company's executive ③put it, "Many users probably spend more time ④on the Internet than ⑤they are in their cars."

278

No discovery, however, that has been made ①of recent years ②is likely to prove ③so ④important as ⑤those of atomic energy.

279 _____ at the ceremony were Charles Lee and Ken Rogers.

- ① Among the present students
- ② Among the students present
- ③ Of the present students
- ④ Of the students present

280

Choose the one that is not correct in terms of grammar.

- ① A: Could you keep eye on Dorothy for me?
- ② B: Sure. She'll be fine.
- ③ A: Thank you. I'll be right back.
- ④ B: Take your time.

CHAPTER 15

281

A: What did you think about the movie?

B: The more I watched, _____.

- ① the more I got boring
- ② the more boring I got
- ③ the more I got bored
- ④ the more bored I got 282

A: I hate studying math.

B: Me too. There's _____ studying math.

- ① anything I like less than
- ② everything I like more than
- ③ nothing I like less than
- ④ not much I like more than 283

However, this process removes the important plant cover that geologists believe ①holds soil particles in place, making soil ②defenselessly to wind and water erosion. Sometimes, the wind blows soil from a plowed field, soil erosion in many places ③occurring at a ④much faster rate than the natural processes of weathering can replace ⑤it.

284

As the unemployment rates among people in their 20s and 30s are rising, _____ deciding to get married.

- ① fewer is ② the fewer is
- ③ fewer are ④ the fewer are 285

Growing giant pumpkins is a fine art, with nearly _____ different ideas about how to do it best as there are pumpkin growers.

- ① more ② many
- ③ as much ④ as many

286

① This is a new kind of self-sticking envelope. ② It has a special adhesive on the flap, which is covered by a plastic strip. ③ By removing the strip, you expose the adhesive on the flap, which you then fold over and seal. ④ In tests with the Post Office's new automated sorting equipment this envelope has been shown to be ten times durable than the old style envelope.

287

A: I think I'm going to go to bed.

B: Same here. I _____ turn in myself.

- ① about was to ② was about to
- ③ was to about ④ about to was 288

A: It's a worthy endeavor!

B: But I'm afraid it is _____ than out budget will permit just now.

- ① more a bit ambitious
- ② a more bit ambitious
- ③ more ambitious a bit
- ④ a bit more ambitious

289

Many men _____ a woman as a business partner.

- ① still have difficulty accepting
- ② have still difficulty accepting
- ③ have difficulty still accepting
- ④ have difficulty accepting still 290

Indeed, the pyramids are so ①large in some cases they occupy thirteen acres of land ②largely enough to cover ten football fields and contain ③as many as two million stone blocks ④weighing an average of 23 tons.

291

The things we ①long to do — educate ourselves, become successful in our work, ②and fall in love — ③are not goals shared by all. ④Nor are the means to achieve these things ⑤obscurely.

292

A: Will you take this to Tom?
B: _____.

- ① That I will ② I will that
③ I will so ④ So I will.

293

A: Which one of them is Elaine? Don't point.
B: In the red, and _____ are sisters.

- ① other ② others
③ the other ④ the others

294

A: Kevin looked a little bit upset when I saw him.
B: Well, he's been _____ a lot of stress lately.

- ① under ② in
③ out ④ up

295

According to the National Council for Adoption, _____ 1 million and 2 million U.S. families would like to adopt.

- ① about ② from
③ between ④ through

296

① In 1787 in Philadelphia, fifty-five Founding Fathers attended a convention that resulted in the drafting of the constitution of the United States. ② Now, through the wonders of the Internet, you can be transported back to that place and time and marry with one of the men who helped shape the country's institutions and most basic laws. ③ They're all waiting for you — what do you say? ④ I promise you that none have ever had restraining orders issued against them.

297

Two policemen were killed and five civilians wounded in _____.

- ① terror attacks
② terrorism attacks
③ terrorist attacks
④ terrorists' attack

298

Courage comes from following a purpose ①that goes beyond your own petty concerns. Because of that, courage gives ②far-reaching power to your actions. In ③the short term, it can often appear ④foolishly to those who are not familiar with the situation. ⑤ No Error

299

①Crying, the child selected her two favorites — one for her father and ②the other for herself — and left the remaining ③ones behind. ④Another passenger had witnessed the incident. ⑤ No Error

300

Most of ①the work that most people have to do ②is not in ③themselves interesting, but even ④such boring work has certain great advantages. ⑤ No Error